

Software License Agreement

"Software" is defined as the RtVision computer program with which this Software License Agreement ("Agreement") is included and any updates or maintenance releases thereto. The use by you of any services or content accessible through the RtVision Software may be subject to your acceptance of separate agreements with RtVision or third parties. Do not use the RtVision Software until you have carefully read the following Agreement. This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions for licensing of the RtVision Software from RtVision to you ("you" or "Licensee"), and installing and using the RtVision Software indicates that you have read and understand this Agreement and accept its terms and conditions.

License and Restrictions

License Grant for Software

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, you are granted a limited non-transferable, non-exclusive license to use a copy of the enclosed Software. You may make one (1) backup copy of the Software for your own use. The term "Software" also includes any documentation, revisions, user upgrades, modified versions or updates of the Software. RtVision owns all copyright, trade secret, patent and other proprietary rights in the Software product.

If the software is licensed for "concurrent use", you may not allow more than the maximum number of authorized users to use the Software concurrently. The number of concurrent users is defined as the maximum number of users or devices accessing the Designated System at any given point in time.

TO USE THE SOFTWARE

Restrictions

You agree not to: (1) make additional copies of the Software except as provided above; (2) enable others to use your registration code(s) or serial numbers (of any); (3) give copies to another person who has not purchased a license for the Software from RtVision; (4) install the Software on computers used by individuals who have not purchased the appropriate licenses for the Software from RtVision; (5) duplicate the Software by any other means including electronic transmission; or (6) copy the printed materials or user documentation accompanying the Software, if any. The Software in its entirety is protected by copyright laws. The Software also contains the trade secrets of RtVision and third parties, and you may not decompile, reverse engineer, disassemble, or otherwise reduce the Software to human-perceivable form or disclose such trade secrets. You may not attempt to modify, adapt, translate, rent, sublicense, assign, loan, resell for profit, distribute, or network the Software, Disk(s), or related materials or create derivative works based upon the Software or any part thereof.

Your license confers no title to, or ownership in, the Software and is not a sale of any rights in the Software.

Termination

This Agreement may be terminated by RtVision immediately and without notice if you fail to comply with any term or condition of this Agreement. Upon such termination, you must immediately destroy all complete and partial copies of the RtVision Software, including all backup copies. RtVision shall have the right to change or add to the terms of this Agreement at any time, and to change, discontinue or impose conditions on any aspect of the RtVision Software. Such changes shall be effective upon notification by any means reasonable to give you actual or constructive notice, or upon posting such terms in the RtVision Software, and your continued use of the RtVision Software will indicate your agreement to any such change.
